The map is a detailed representation of the FLAKE QUADRANGLE in Texas, with a focus on the Intracoastal Waterway and various land and water features. The map includes grid lines, roadways, and other geographical markers. It is produced by the United States Geological Survey and is dated 2010.